"The Thorn" takes its epic story of God's love for the world on an 12-city 2026 Fall Tour

ROCKFORD, IL – "The Thorn," a powerful and popular theatrical event, seen live by over one million people, will return this Fall 2026 with 23 performances throughout September and October. Celebrating its 30th anniversary, The Thorn continues its legacy of bringing the passion of Jesus to life through a visually stunning and emotionally moving production. Over the past year, The Thorn has continued to captivate audiences nationwide, drawing more than 160,000 fans to its sold-out performances.

The Thorn offers audiences a unique theatrical experience in a show that has been hailed as "Cirque meets 'The Passion'" thanks to its compelling mix of drama, music, dance, martial arts, aerial acrobatics, emotionally evocative performances, and timeless spiritual perspectives. The story spans from creation to the formation of the early church. Watch the trailer here. To learn more about The Thorn, please visit TheThorn.com.

Local pre-sale start Thursday, June 25, 2026 at 10:00AM – Friday, June 26, 2026 at 9:00AM. Tickets go on sale to the general public on Friday, June 26, at 10:00AM local time at thethorn.com/tickets, Ticketmaster.com, by calling the Coronado Theatre box office at 815-968-5222, or in-person at the BMO Center box office located at 300 Elm Street, Rockford, IL (open M-F, 10AM-2PM; Coronado Box office is currently closed for in-person sales during the summer).

Author John Bolin created the show over 25 years ago to convey the meaning of Christ's sacrificial death to a group of young people who knew little about the story of Jesus' suffering but were familiar with pain through their own practice of cutting and self-harm.

The show has evolved ever since, with the current live version returning to the original format featuring St. John, "the beloved disciple," recalling his many amazing encounters with Jesus.

"It's a story full of love, sacrifice, spiritual warfare, and redemption," said Bolin.
