Eats & Beats!

Freeport Area

Eats and Beats Returns to Freeport August 28 & 29

Two Nights of Music, Food, and Community Spirit.

Freeport Area Eats & Beats is back at the Freeport Art Museum (FAM) Arts Plaza on August 28-29, bringing two evenings of live music, great food, and community celebration to downtown Freeport. The festival runs from 5:00-9:30 p.m. both nights at the corner of East Douglas Street and North Chicago Avenue.

Friday kicks off with the festival debut of That 70's Band from 5:30-7:00 p.m., followed by the highly anticipated return of Hello Weekend, performing from 7:30-9:30 p.m.

Saturday opens with Freeport favorites the Lobbin' Robbins from 5:30-7:00 p.m. The night wraps up with one of Eats & Beats' most popular headliners, Mike and Joe, taking the stage at 7:30 p.m.

Eats & Beats is a collaborative event showcasing the work of Stephenson County charitable organizations. Each participating nonprofit prepares a unique food item, with 100% of proceeds staying with the individual groups.

This year's nonprofit partners include DD Homes, Freeport Eagles Aerie #679, Friends Forever Humane Society, Grace Episcopal Church, Hope Wins, Malcolm Eaton Enterprises, Norman C. Sleezer Youth Home, Pretzel City Transit, RAMP, Salvation Army, the Senior Resource Center, and Voices.

Festival-goers can enjoy a wide variety of crowd-pleasing favorites, including pulled pork sandwiches, walking tacos, pork chop sandwiches, corn dogs, monster cookies, lemon shake-ups, jumbo soft pretzels, snow cones, cotton candy, and more.

Last year, Eats & Beats helped raise and distribute over $20,000 to local charitable organizations.

For updates, announcements, and sneak peeks at this year's food and music lineup, follow the Freeport Area Eats & Beats page on Facebook.

Beyond the stage, Dunham has also filmed 13 record-breaking comedy specials and currently holds three of the top-five highest-rated programs on Comedy Central. Of those specials, "Minding the Monsters" (2012) and "Controlled Chaos" (2011) were the network's most viewed specials of their respective years, while 2008's "Jeff Dunham's Very Special Christmas Special" remains Comedy Central's highest rated program of all time. His 2019 Netflix special "Beside Himself," still ranks in the top five most watched among all Netflix Comedy Specials. All-in, his specials have garnered nearly 2.5 billion views across all digital and broadcast platforms.

Dunham is also an avid car collector whose extensive agglomerate includes the "Lost In Space" chariots from both the original TV series and current Netflix series; the Batmobile from 1992's Batman Returns; and a replica from the same mold of the 1966 Batmobile from the original "Batman" TV series. Both Dunham and pieces of his collection have been regular guests on "Jay Leno's Garage". Aside from all his achievements, Dunham and his wife, Audrey, have also created the "Jeff Dunham Family Fund", through which a portion of every ticket sold is given to various charities and charitable organizations of all persuasions.
