FOID CARD REINSTATEMENT

In Illinois for a resident to own a gun, they must have a Firearms Owners Identification Card (F.O.I.D. Card). Application for this is done online through the Illinois State Police. However, individuals who have one or more criminal felony convictions or convictions for domestic violence offenses are ineligible to be issued a card. Also, person who hold a card can have their card revoked due to a felony or domestic violence conviction. When this happens, what do you do? Most people think they cannot do anything to get a FOID card or have a revoked card reinstated. But in Illinois, there is a little-known reinstatement process that can be done through the Courts or State Police to have your gun rights reinstate and to obtain a FOID card.

These laws also include correction of prior criminal records to make persons eligible to have a card and reinstate eligibility due to FOID card suspension. All of the above may be difficult to navigate on your own when reviewing the law or through the State Police's website. Legal advice by an experienced lawyer familiar with this area of law is essential to reinstate your FOID card and gun ownership rights. All is not lost. You should take action now to consult with an attorney.

Haunted Rockford's own Kathi Kresol will be joining the Rockford Historical Society as the members share the history of the stories behind the stones at one of the historic cemeteries in Rockford. St. Mary's and St. James Cemetery is filled with amazing stories that the Rockford Historical Society will highlight in this Cemetery Tour on September 19 from 10am-1pm! Volunteers select individuals interred in the cemetery, research the person's past, and interpret their findings for those who attend the walk. The interpreters are often dressed in costumes of the period associated with their subjects. Some of the interpreters also bring related items to enhance their presentations given near the gravesites of their chosen individuals. This event is free but donations to the Rockford Historical Society will be accepted at the event and are appreciated.
